7. Committees

- 7.1. Committees to which the Directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by Directors.
- 7.2. The Directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the Articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

8. Directors to take decisions collectively

The general rule about decision-making by Directors is that any decision of the Directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with Article 9.

9. Unanimous decisions

- 9.1. A decision of the Directors is taken in accordance with this Article when all eligible Directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 9.2. Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible Director or to which each eligible Director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 9.3. References in this Article to eligible Directors are to Directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a Directors' meeting.
- 9.4. A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article if the eligible Directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

10. Calling a Directors' meeting

- 10.1. Any Director may call a Directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the Directors or by authorizing the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- 10.2. Notice of any Directors' meeting must indicate;-
 - 10.2.1. its proposed date and time;
 - 10.2.2. where it is to take place; and
 - 10.2.3. if it is anticipated that Directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 10.3. Notice of a Directors' meeting must be given to each Director, but need not be in writing.

11. Participation in Directors' meetings

- 11.1. Subject to the Articles, Directors participate in a Directors' meeting, or part of a Directors' meeting, when;-
 - 11.1.1. the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles, and
 - 11.1.2. they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 11.2. In determining whether Directors are participating in a Directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 11.3. If all the Directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.
- 11.4. The Board of Directors shall have power to invite any person it wishes to attend any meeting of the Board of Directors in an advisory capacity but without power to vote thereat.

12. Quorum for Directors' meetings

- 12.1. At a Directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 12.2. The quorum for Directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the Directors, but it must never be less than four, and unless otherwise fixed it is four.
- 12.3. If the total number of Directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Directors must not take any decision other than a decision;-
 - 12.3.1. to appoint further Directors, or
 - 12.3.2. to call a general meeting so as to enable the Members to appoint further Directors.

14. Casting vote

- 14.1. If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the Chairman or other Director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.
- 14.2. But this does not apply if, in accordance with the Articles, the Chairman or other Director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

15. Conflicts of interest

- 15.1. If a proposed decision of the Directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company in which a Director is interested, that Director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.
- 15.2. But if paragraph 15.3 applies, a Director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes.
- 15.3. This paragraph applies when;-
 - 15.3.1. the company by ordinary resolution disapplies the provision of the Articles which would otherwise prevent a Director from being counted as participating in the decision-making process;
 - 15.3.2. the Director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or
 - 15.3.3. the Director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.

 - 15.4.3. arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and Directors or former employees and Directors of the Company or any of its subsidiaries which do not provide special benefits for Directors or former Directors.

- 15.5. For the purposes of this Article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any Directors' meeting or part of a Directors' meeting.
- 15.6. Subject to paragraph 15.7 if a question arises at a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors as to the right of a Director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the Chairman whose ruling in relation to any Director other than the Chairman is to be final and conclusive.
- 15.7. If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the Chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the Directors at that meeting, for which purpose the Chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

16. Conflicts of interest – no transaction or arrangement

- 16.1. Where there is no transaction or arrangement, the Directors may, in accordance with the requirements set out in this Article, authorise any matter proposed to them by any Director which would, if not authorised, involve a Director breaching his duty under section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest ('Conflict').
- 16.2. Any authorisation under this Article will be effective only if:-
 - 16.2.1. the matter in question shall have been proposed by any Director for consideration at a meeting of Directors in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the Directors under the provisions of these Articles or in such other manner as the Directors may determine;
 - 16.2.2. any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the Directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the Director in question; and
 - 16.2.3. the matter was agreed to without his voting or would have been agreed to if his vote had not been counted.
- 16.3. Any authorisation of a Conflict under this Article may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently):-

 - 16.3.2. be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the Directors may determine;
 - 16.3.3. be terminated or varied by the Directors at any time.

This will not affect anything done by the Director prior to such termination or variation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation.

- 16.4. In authorising a Conflict the Directors may decide (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that if a Director has obtained any information through his involvement in the Conflict otherwise than as a Director of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person the Director is under no obligation to:-
- 16.4.1. disclose such information to the Directors or to any Director or other officer or employee of the Company;
 - 16.4.2. use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a Director; where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence.
- 16.5. Where the Directors authorise a Conflict they may provide, without limitation (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that the Director:-
- 16.5.1. is excluded from discussions (whether at meetings of Directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict;-

- 16.7. A Director is not required, by reason of being a Director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a Director), to account to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which he derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a Conflict which has been authorised by the Directors or by the Company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation) and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on such grounds.
